REGULATIONS GOVERNING
POST GRADUATE LAW DEGREE (LL. M.) PROGRAMME
Based on Choice Based Credit System (CBCS)

DEFINITION OF KEY WORDS:

1. Academic Year: Two consecutive semesters (one odd followed by one even) constitute one academic year.
2. Audit Courses: Courses, outside the prescribed range of credits required for the degree, the students can register if interested to supplement their knowledge/ skills.
3. Accelerated Credit Course (ACC): Credit Courses taken up prior to the commencement of the Programme by a student.
4. Choice Based Credit System (CBCS): The CBCS provides choice for students to select from the prescribed set of courses viz. Foundation/Compulsory Courses, Optional/ Specialization Courses, Dissertation, Mandatory Non Credit Courses, Ability enhancement courses and Skill enhancement courses.
5. Course: Referred to as 'papers', is a component of a programme, with defined learning objectives, outcomes and number of credits. A course may be designed to comprise lectures/ assignments/ tutorials/ clinicals /field work/outreach activities/project work/ self-study/ vocational training/viva/seminars/term papers/ presentations/ quiz etc. or a combination of these as defined in the Scheme of Teaching. The course credits vary depending on the required teaching-learning hours to accomplish the learning outcomes, specified in the course syllabus.
6. Credit: A unit by which the course work is measured. It determines the number of hours of instructions required per week. One credit is generally equivalent to one hour of lecture or two hours of tutorial/practical work/field work per week. It may also be pre-defined otherwise in any coursework.
7. Credit Based Semester System (CBSS): Under CBSS, the requirement for awarding a degree or diploma or certificate is prescribed in terms of number of credits to be earned by the students.
8. Credit Point: It is the product of grade point and number of credits for a course.
9. Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA): It is a measure of overall cumulative performance of a student over all semesters. The CGPA is the ratio of total credit points earned by a student in various courses in all semesters and the sum of the total credits of all courses in all the semesters. It is expressed up to two decimal places. However, the CGPA may be calculated from second semester onwards to facilitate students to know their academic progress.

10. Dean/Director: Dean/Director of the School of Legal Studies of the University.
11. First Attempt: If a student has completed all formalities and become eligible to attend examinations and has attended at least one head of passing, such attempt (first sitting) shall be considered as first attempt.
12. Grade Point: It is a numerical weightage allotted to each letter grade on a 10-point scale.
13. Letter Grade: An index of the performance of students in a said course. Grades are denoted by letters.
14. Passing Standards: A student is passing a Course only when getting GP greater than or equal to 05 (P Grade). A student is declared successful at the Semester-end or Programme-end only when getting SGPA or CGPA equal to or greater than 5.00 respectively, with none of the Courses registered in a Semester having either F-RA or F-RR Grade.
15. Programme: A planned series of events/activities comprising of a combination of courses leading to the award of the degree LL.M.
16. Programme Council: The committee consisting of the Director of the programme, HOD and the concerned faculty members from each cadre.
17. Semester: Each semester will consist of at least 18 weeks of academic work equivalent to about 90 teaching days. The odd semester may be scheduled from August to January/February and even semester from February to July/August, or as may be declared by the University.
18. Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA): It is a measure of academic performance of student in a semester. It is the ratio of total credit points secured by a student in various courses registered in a semester and the total course credits taken during that semester. It shall be expressed up to two decimal places.
19. Specialization: Specialization or discipline of LL.M. Programme, like Constitutional Law, Commercial Law, Criminal Law or any other specialization that the University may from time to time, offer.
20. Transcript, Grade Certificate and Grade Card: Grade card shall be issued to candidates indicating the programme details (Course code, title, number of credits, grade secured and grade points) for all the registered courses after every semester. On successful completion of all courses/earning credits, specified in a semester, the grade certificate is issued indicating the programme details along with SGPA of that semester and CGPA earned till that semester. Transcripts to the successful candidates shall be issued after successful completion of the programme with required credits earned.
21. University: CMR University, Bangalore.

REGULATIONS

24PGLM 1.0	TITLE AND DURATION OF THE PROGRAMME
24PGLM 1.1	The Post Graduate Program covered under this Regulation is the Master of Laws, abbreviated as LL.M. followed by specialization indicated within parenthesis. The Programmes covered under these regulations are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Master of Laws – Commercial Law</li> <li>2) Master of Laws – Constitutional Law</li> <li>3) Master of Laws – Criminal Law.</li> </ol>

24PGLM 3.0	CHOICE BASED CREDIT SYSTEM AND ACADEMIC PROCESS
24PGLM 3.1	Semester – Odd and Even: The University follows the Choice Based Credit System and the Semester Scheme. There are two regular semesters. The semester that begins in August (August to December/ January) is known as the Odd Semester and the semester that begins in February to July is known as the Even Semester.

24PGLM 3.2	Curriculum: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Every Programme has a prescribed course structure which, in general terms, is known as the Curriculum or the Courses of Study or the Scheme of Teaching and Evaluation. It prescribes all the courses/ clinical/ other requirements for the degree and sets out the nominal sequence semester wise. It also provides the syllabus and a list of text/ reference books (or other learning material sources) for each course.</li> <li>2) The university shall not only lay down the syllabus for each course, but also the manner of its implementation, namely, through lectures, tutorials, clinicals, seminars, field work, projects and such other activities.</li> <li>3) The Courses of Study details are updated every semester and are made available in the School page of the University website: http://cmr.edu.in/</li> </ol>
24PGLM 3.3	Course Credit Structure: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) A certain quantum of academic work, measured in terms of credits, is laid down as the requirement for completion of degree in the different programs and the available specialization areas. A student earns credits by satisfactorily completing courses/other academic activities every semester.</li> <li>2) The credits are distributed semester wise, as prescribed in the Scheme of Teaching and Evaluation for each of the programmes. The courses generally progress in sequences, building competencies as per the course learning outcomes. The positioning of a course indicates certain academic maturity on the part of the students.</li> <li>3) Some courses do, in addition, specify passing in other courses, offered earlier in the programmes, as prerequisites for the course.</li> <li>4) Students are required to follow the semester wise schedule of courses specified in Scheme of Teaching and Evaluation; they do, however, have freedom to follow alternative schedules to optimize their academic profile with additional courses, keeping the requirements for each course in mind. For students with backlog courses, such rescheduling may even become necessary. Such departures from suggested schedules need to be done very carefully, and always with advice from the Faculty Adviser.</li> </ol>
24PGLM 3.4	Courses: There will be following types of courses in a programme, namely in line with BCI / UGC guidelines. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Foundation/ Compulsory Course: A course, which should compulsorily be studied by a candidate as a mandatory requirement is termed as a Foundation/ Compulsory Course.</li> </ol>

	2) Optional/ Specialization Course: Generally a course which can be chosen from a pool of courses and which may be very specific or specialized or advanced or supportive to the discipline/ subject of study or which provides an extended scope or which enables an exposure to some other discipline/subject/domain or nurtures the candidate's proficiency/skill is called an Optional/ Specialization Course. 3) Ability Enhancement Courses (AEC): AEC courses are the courses based upon the content that leads to Knowledge enhancement. 4) Skill Enhancement Courses (SEC): SEC courses are value-based and/or skill-based and are aimed at providing hands-on-training, competencies, skills, etc. These courses may be chosen from a pool of courses designed to provide value-based and/or skill-based knowledge. 5) Dissertation: The dissertation shall be carried on as decided by the Faculty according to regulations approved by the Academic Council of the University.
24PGLM 3.5	Seminars: Some Programmes may prescribe Seminar as a requirement for the degree. Seminar may be an assessment component or a course itself wherein the student is expected to do an in-depth study in a specialized area under the guidance of a faculty member. This may include surveying published legal literature, understanding different aspects of the problem and arriving at a status report. While doing a seminar, the student is expected to: critically analyze works of various authors/ researchers; learn the investigation methodologies, study concepts, techniques and the results presented in these papers; and submit a seminar report. It is mandatory to give a seminar presentation before a panel constituted for the purpose.
24PGLM 3.6	Accelerated Credit Course (ACC): Accelerated Credit Courses may be taken up prior to the commencement of the Programme by a student. A student can take at most 2 Accelerated Credit Courses and can acquire 1 credit from each. These Accelerated Credit Courses are included under the Programme and shall be treated in first and second Semester (1 in each Semester as acquired by the student) of the programme. These courses are given credits upon requirement for acquiring a degree as specified in 24PGLM9.1 or shall be considered as additional credits above the prescribed minimum credit requirements of the programme. These courses are reflected in the Grade Certificate/Transcript with credits.

24PGLM 3.7	Registration: It is mandatory for every student to register for a semester to attend various courses and earn credits, using the prescribed Course Registration Form (CRF), till he completes his programme. The registration shall be completed on or before the prescribed last date for registration announced in the Academic Calendar. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) On joining the Programme, each student is assigned to a Faculty Adviser or an Advisory group. A student shall register for required courses each semester with prior permission of the Faculty Adviser.</li> <li>2) The student can register for courses he intends to take during a given semester on the basis of his plan for each Programme, as given in the Scheme of Teaching and Evaluation and as per the advice given by his Faculty Adviser.</li> <li>3) Students are not permitted to reregister for course(s), which they have already passed.</li> <li>4) Students having outstanding dues to the University or a hostel shall not be permitted to register.</li> <li>5) The registration is deemed to be complete only on approval by the Dean/Director.</li> <li>6) Without registration, any academic activity (course/ seminar etc.) undergone by a student will not be counted towards the requirements of his degree.</li> </ol>
24PGLM 3.8	1) Procedure for Registration: The procedure involves the following steps: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) The students shall decide on the courses to be registered during the ensuing semester as per the advise of their Faculty Adviser.</li> <li>b) They shall fill up the CRF online, stating the courses that they propose to complete during the ensuing semester as per the prescribed curriculum.</li> <li>c) They shall submit a printout of the completed CRF, duly attested by the Faculty Adviser to the Dean/Director through the departmental office within the date notified by the University for registration.</li> </ol> 2) Registration for both semesters: Every student is normally required to register for all the courses listed in the Scheme of Teaching and Evaluation for both the semesters or as per the requirement of any specific semester. 3) Late Registration: Registration beyond the last date may be permitted only in special cases till the date specified in the Academic Calendar, on payment of a late registration fee.

24PGLM 3.9	Course substitution: In case a student obtains C grades or drops courses due to a valid reason or fails in a course, he may like to substitute courses in order to complete the course requirements within the stipulated duration. Following are the guidelines for course substitution: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Course substitution is not permitted for Core Courses. The student has to reregister for the same courses and complete them.</li> <li>2) An elective course may be substituted by another elective course from the same group.</li> </ol>
24PGLM 3.10	Dropping of a Semester: Not registering for any semester before the last date for registration without prior approval of the Dean/Director will result in automatic dropping of semester leading to temporary discontinuation of the programme.
24PGLM 3.11	1) Faculty Adviser: On joining the University, a student or a group of students' is/ are assigned to a Faculty Adviser from the concerned programme. Students are advised to consult the Faculty Adviser on any matter relating to their academic performance and the courses they may take in various semesters. 2) Role of the Faculty Adviser: The Faculty Adviser guides the students to complete their courses of study for the required degree in a smooth and satisfactory manner. For effective utilization of the opportunities for additional academic accomplishments, planning of the individual's academic progress needs careful consideration, and constant consultation with the Faculty Advisers is imperative. Thus, the role of the Faculty Adviser is of immense importance. The Faculty Adviser is the person whom the parents/ guardians should contact for performance related issues of their ward. The faculty adviser shall, <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Guide the students about the rules and regulations governing the courses of study for a particular degree.</li> <li>b) Advise the students for registering courses as per prescribed curriculum or otherwise but within the scope of the rules and regulations prescribed by the University from time to time. For this purpose the Faculty Adviser has to discuss with the student his academic performance during the previous semester and then decide the number and nature of the courses for which he can register during the semester.</li> </ol>

- c) Approve the CRF by attesting same, before the prescribed last date.
- d) Advice students to overload/ drop one or more courses/ activities based on his academic performance.
- e) At the end of the semester, the Faculty Adviser may even advise a reduced load programme for a poorly performing student. This reduced load programme may spread over several semesters subject to minimum load for the semester and completion of the degree programme within the prescribed maximum period. Such reduced load programme is to be prepared by the Faculty Adviser in consultation with the Student and his parent and the Faculty Adviser has to recommend the same through the Programme Council to the Dean/Director for consideration and approval before the commencement of the semester.
- f) Pay special attention to weak students and carefully monitor performance of students recommended for slow track option.
- g) Advice students for Course Adjustment/ Dropping of courses during the Semester within the stipulated time frame given in the Academic calendar.

Table: Marks (%) and Letter Grade relation
24PGLM 6.2
Other Letter Grades:

The letter grades specified in 24PGLM 6.1 are used as student performance measures in all kinds of assessments.

However, the following letter grades are also awarded under the circumstances defined below (Letter Grade: Grade Point - Circumstances)

- 1) F-RR: 0 - Not eligible to appear for the SEE of a course due to attendance being less than 75% and / or CIE being below 50%.

To re-register for the course and appear for the SEE in the subsequent semester when it is being offered by the School of Studies.

(In case of electives, course change within the group is permitted.)

- 2) AU: 0 - Satisfactory in an Audit course
- 3) W: No credits – Dropped/ withdrawn (W is not a grade but only a place holder indicating that the course has been dropped/withdrawn and it has to be cleared in subsequent semesters in case it is a core subject).

24PGLM 6.3
Passing a Course:

For pass in a course, the student shall secure a minimum of 50% of marks prescribed for that course in CIE and 50% in SEE or viva voce examinations.
